

Sri S. SIVAPPA.—Has it come to the notice of the Government that treatment shown to Sri Javali has caused discontentment among the other Joint Directors?

Sri S. R. KANTHI.—If the other Joint Directors object, there is the Supreme Court judgment.

Smt. V. V. MIRJANKAR.—In spite of the fact that there are three Joint Directors and one Director of Public Instruction, the progress of women's education is lagging behind. Will the Government consider appointing one more Joint Director for women's education?

Sri S. R. KANTHI.—That is a suggestion for action.

ಶ್ರೀ ಬಿ. ಹುಚ್ಚೇಗೌಡ.—ಈ ಕೇಸು ನಡೆಯಬೇಕಾದರೆ ಸರ್ಕಾರದ ಪರವಾಗಿ ಯಾರಾದರೂ ಪ್ರತಿನಿಧಿ ಇದ್ದರೇ? ಎಕ್ಸ್ ಪಾರ್ಟ್ ಆಯ್ಕೆ?

ಶ್ರೀ ಎಸ್. ಆರ್. ಕಂಠಿ.— ಆ ವಿವರ ನನಗೆ ಗೊತ್ತಿಲ್ಲ.

Sri C. J. MUCKANNAPPA.—Has it come to the notice of the Government that the Government of Maharashtra have stated in their letter that Sri Javali cannot be promoted from 1954 and that the special pay of Rs. 150 cannot be paid as he has not discharged the duty as D. D. P. I?

Sri S. R. KANTHI.—It is not a fact. That question has been settled. Sri Javali was above Sri Chowdhary and Sri Chowdhary had been promoted in the Bombay State and to say that Sri Javali would not have been promoted in due course, is to say something which is not sustainable.

Setting up of Whitley type of Councils or other machinery for joint consultations with their employees regarding disputes as between Government and their employees.

*Q.—332. Sri ANNA RAO GANAMUKHI (Afzalpur).—

Will the Government be pleased to state:—

(a) whether the State Government had decided to set up Whitley

type of Councils or other machinery for joint consultations with their employees regarding disputes as between the Government and their employees;

(b) if so, how many disputes were referred to the above Council or Machinery;

(c) how many of them were settled amicably?

A.—Sri B. D. JATTI (Minister for Finance) [on behalf of Sri S. NIJALINGAPPA (Chief Minister)].—

(a) It has been decided to set up Departmental staff councils in certain Departments consisting of Government nominees and representatives of employees.

(b) The Staff Councils are intended to consider matters of mutual interest to Government and the Services. These matters do not necessarily arise in the form of disputes.

(c) In view of the answer to (b), this does not arise.

Sri ANNA RAO GANAMUKHI.—May I know what are the departments where these staff councils have been set up?

Sri B. D. JATTI.—There are seven departments:

- (1) Secretariat & Headquarters Establishment.
- (2) Revenue Department
- (3) Education Department
- (4) Public Works Department
- (5) Medical and Public Health Departments.
- (6) Agriculture and Forest Departments.
- (7) Industries and Commerce Departments.

The only council which is working is that of the Secretariat and Headquarters Establishment. The members of the Council are; Chief Secretary, Chairman; Other Secretaries are members.

Sri ANNA RAO GANAMUKHI.—If there are no disputes, may I know whether there are any differences?

Sri B. D. JATTI.—There are neither disputes nor differences. There are slight inconveniences. If those inconveniences are to be removed, both of them will have to sit together and come to a settlement and adjust working.

Sri ANNA RAO GANAMUKHI.—May I know how many such inconveniences have been removed so far and what are those inconveniences?

Sri B. D. JATTI.—In a l, four sittings of the Council were held. At the first meeting they did not discuss items because it was an inaugural function. At the other three meetings they have discussed about transport facilities and office hours. They have discussed with the authorities concerned. I hope those difficulties will be over.

Sri ANNA RAO GANAMUKHI.—What are those differences which remain unresolved so far?

Sri B. D. JATTI.—According to my information there are no differences which are not resolved. These are matters of convenience between the servants working and the staff.

Sri ANNA RAO GANAMUKHI.—May I know whether it covers Class III and class IV also?

Sri B. D. JATTI.—Yes, it covers Class IV also. In each Council if they have formed associations, their representatives will be there. Otherwise the nominees will be on the Council.

Mr. SPEAKER.—Question hour is over.
